

Operation Spiderâ??s Web and the Future of Asymmetric Warfare

Description

Episode 130 of the Irregular Warfare Podcast takes listeners inside Operation Spiderâ??s Webâ??Ukraineâ??s bold campaign of long-range drone strikes targeting Russian military and industrial infrastructure.

Our guests begin by examining why Ukrainian defense planners opted for this unprecedented strike operation and how it was designed to disrupt Russian strategic depth. They then unpack the technical, operational, and strategic considerations that enabled the operation, including the role of commercial drones, asymmetric targeting, and irregular doctrine. The episode concludes with reflections on how Spiderâ??s Web is reshaping our understanding of deep operations and irregular warfare in the 21st century.
